North Uist Historical Society

Who we are:

Comann Eachdraidh Uibhist a Tuath was founded in the 1980s. The aim of the Society is to conserve the history of the island by encouraging research, recording history & folklore, and collecting artefacts & photos.

The Society holds annual exhibitions at Taigh Chearsabhaigh Museum and Arts Centre, Lochmaddy.

Our Collections:

The Archive Study Area in Taigh Chearsabhaigh holds our collection of over 6,000 photographs.

The Society has a vast collection of artefacts currently stored on Benbecula. Plans are underway to transfer these to North Uist for public access.

Membership:

We are asking interested people to pay an annual subscription of £10.00 which will provide the following;

- Regular mailings with information about exhibitions, talks & lectures
- Invitation to exhibition opening events
- Invitation to the CEUT AGM and the opportunity to join the committee
- Valuable income to further the Society's aims and objectives

On payment of the annual subscription, residents of North Uist HS6 will become full members of CEUT and entitled to vote at meetings.

Those resident outwith North Uist will become associate members of CEUT on payment of the annual subscription. Although not entitled to vote at meetings, associate members are welcome to offer their opinions on CEUT's various activities.

CEUT values the contributions made by all its members in forwarding the Society's aims.
